

The Drama Continues: An Update on Brexit

Join the Institute of European Studies for a presentation by Paul Craig

Location: GISB room 4067

Date & Time: Tuesday, Sept. 18, 12:00

More than two years after the United Kingdom voted to leave the European Union, the details of Brexit are still unresolved and the decision itself remains contentious. Please join Paul Craig (Oxford University / Maurer School of Law) for an update on the EU-UK negotiations, the likely outcomes, and the impact on both Europe and the United Kingdom.

Lunch will be provided

Paul Craig, Professor of English law at the University of Oxford, regularly visits Indiana Law, where he teaches Administrative and European Union Law
