

A Free Workshop for Teachers

The European Union

and why it matters to the Midwest

Friday, March 30, 2012

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Wiekamp Hall 1285
Indiana University South Bend
1800 Mishawaka Ave.
South Bend, Indiana

Morning session will introduce teachers to the EU institutions such as the Euro, the European Council, the European Parliament, and the Lisbon treaty.

Afternoon session will be a model EU simulation where participants play the roles of prime ministers and presidents, EU commissioners and officials, in negotiating policy, resolving disputes, building compromises, and charting the course of European unity.

Participants will receive:

- Six Professional Growth Experience Points
- Free materials about the EU
- Travel scholarships of up to €40 (approximately $50) are available
- Free lunch

Register today by visiting <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/W38FBB5> to download the application form and mail or fax it to the IU European Union Center. For more information, contact the EU Center at (812) 856-3832 or eucenter@indiana.edu. Priority application deadline is Monday March 5, 2012.

The workshop will be led by Indiana University South Bend Professor of Comparative Politics, Dr. Neovi Karakatsanis, and IUSB Professor of Political Geography, Dr. Gabriel Popescu.

Co-sponsored by the Indiana University-Bloomington European Union Center and the Indiana University-South Bend Department of Political Science through a grant from the European Union.