

A Free Workshop for Teachers

The European Union

and why it matters to the Midwest

Friday, April 1, 2011

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

International School of Indiana
4330 N. Michigan Road
Indianapolis, Indiana

Morning session will introduce teachers to the EU institutions such as the Euro, the European Council, the European Parliament, and the Lisbon treaty.

Afternoon session will be a model EU simulation where participants play the roles of prime ministers and presidents, EU commissioners and officials, in negotiating policy, resolving disputes, building compromises, and charting the course of European unity.

Participants will receive:

- Six Professional Growth Experience Points
- Free materials about the EU
- Travel reimbursements of up to €40 (approximately $50)
- Free lunch

Register today by visiting www.iub.edu/~eucenter/teachers_workshops.shtml to download the application form and mail or fax it to the IU European Union Center. For more information, contact the EU Center at (812) 856-3832 or eucenter@indiana.edu. *The deadline to apply is Tuesday March 1, 2011.

The workshop will be lead by IUPUI Professor Dr. John McCormick, Jean Monet Chair of European Politics, and Ball State University Professor Dr. Gene Frankland.

Co-sponsored by the Indiana University European Union Center and the Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis Department of Political Science through grants from the European Union.